

BILLY SUNDAY OF JAPAN IS WINNING MANY SOULS

Kimura, Young Revivalist, Preaches in Tent Close by Houses of Parliament.

STUDENT OF DWIGHT L. MOODY

Conducts Great Evangelist Campaign, and Every Week for Next Year and Half Is Filled With Engagements.

[Correspondence of Associated Press.] TOKYO, June 26.—Close by the houses of Parliament, within which members were discussing the question of China, there stood a big tent, fronted and flanked by many brightly-colored Japanese banners. Through the flaps came the sound of a man's voice, pleasant, resonant and powerful. The voice was exhorting people to come to God and be saved.

The correspondent of the Associated Press, who was on his way to the Diet, stopped at the entrance of the tent. A little group of smiling, welcoming Japanese were there.

"Who is that man speaking?" was asked.

"Why, don't you know?" came the answer. "That's Kimura, the Billy Sunday of Japan."

At the same moment the notes of a Christian hymn sung in chorus filled the great tent, and, bursting without, caused hundreds of passing people to stop, listen and inquire. They were informed that it was all a part of the great Christian evangelist movement now under way throughout Japan, and that Seimatsu Kimura, the young revivalist of Japan, friend and student of Dwight L. Moody, was conducting the two meetings.

The picture was much the same as American revivalist meetings, with the added interest by the rich-colored flowing kimono, the black hair of the Japanese women, the occasional clatter of the wooden shoe, and the many-hued Japanese decorations.

The music ceased. Then a Japanese with regular, handsome features, medium in height, rather stockily built, dressed in European clothes, stepped forward from his co-workers on the platform and began to talk in Japanese. He began quietly, but soon his voice rose and his face changed, as becoming more impassioned he discoursed eagerly upon the theme of salvation. Leaning forward and shouting out a clenched fist before him, the evangelist cried to the men: "You students in Tokyo, sitting there on your Webster dictionaries, you think you are fine and mighty, indeed. You think how much better you are than other people; but I ask, have you found the love of Jesus Christ?"

IN TRUE SUNDAY STYLE

Then, turning to the young women, he shouted: "You with your pretty kimonos and pretty faces—think you, perhaps, that you are saved by these things alone? Prepare yourself ere it is too late. Come into the kingdom of Jesus Christ and be saved." Then he went on hammering home truths to the different sections of his audience, gestulating violently at times, moving nervously back and forth upon the platform, jumping up and down, crouching to his knees, and especially using his wonderful black eyes and his expressive face to bring home the thought he was trying to communicate.

Suddenly he flung his right arm upward towards a sign which rested above the platform and read it both in Japanese and English.

"Christ for the citizens of Tokyo! The citizens of Tokyo for Christ!" He then to the words, my brothers and sisters. My aim is to convert to Christianity every one of the 60,000,000 souls in Japan to-day. I believe in sudden conversions. Come here now and give me your hand as an emblem that you have accepted the truth.

A number of people walked up to the revivalist and accepted Christianity. Then there was more music and the correspondent was introduced to the Sankey of the Tokyo revivalist movement. He is called "Vio" Sakai, because he loves the violin, and as Sankey was singer for Moody, so Sakai is the player for Kimura.

The following day the correspondent was told by the revivalist himself something of his life and something of his hopes for the future.

Seimatsu Kimura, who is known by his American friends as Henry Kimura, was born in Japan about forty years ago. "I was the son of a wine seller," he said, "and when I was a boy of sixteen I was kicked out of my house. I sold newspapers to earn enough to eat. At the age of sixteen I was converted to Christianity, and, somehow, since then, life has gone on happily and fruitfully. I think, as I told Dwight L. Moody one day, that it is a case of Philippians iv. 19. 'But my God shall supply all your needs according to his riches in glory by Jesus Christ.'"

BROTHER PREPARING FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

"I was one of three children," he went on, "and of my brothers, Seishiro Iwanura (adopted by the Iwanura family) is now preparing for Sunday school service by studying at the theological seminary at Hartford, Connecticut. And I would like to note my other brother and my father and mother have been converted."

"When I was nineteen years old I went to the United States to learn how to win souls. Dwight L. Moody was holding revivalist meetings in South California, and so big were the crowds that I had a hard time trying to hear him. But I said to the big policeman at the door: 'Look here, Mr. Policeman, I have come 5,000 miles to hear Mr. Moody, and you just must get me in.'"

"That was how I first met Mr. Moody. I stayed close by him, and when he left for the north, it was I who carried his satchel. Mr. Moody was astounded to find me following him on to the train, and was more astounded when I told him that I was going with him. I told the great preacher that I wanted to become an evangelist. I asked him what school I should go to. I said I had asked two people, and they had given me different advice, Mr. Moody said: 'If you ask five people you will have five different advices. There is only one being who can advise you truly, and that is God.' And I said to Mr. Moody at once, 'It's all decided, I'm going to the Moody Institute at Chicago.'"

To China to Marry and Make Her Home

Mrs. Francis J. M. Cotter

An interesting wedding took place in Shanghai, China, on May 27, when Miss Ida Miller Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller Taylor, of New Rochelle, N. Y., became the bride of the Rev. Francis J. M. Cotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Cotter, of New York. The wedding took place in the pro-cathedral in Shanghai, and Bishop Robert Graves performed the ceremony. For their honeymoon trip they went up the Yangtze River to Kuling, where they will pass the summer studying the Chinese language. In the autumn they will return to Wuchang, where Mr. Cotter is in charge of St. Michael's Church. Mrs. Cotter is a granddaughter of the late Alexander Taylor, banker, and left for her new home on April 25.

ing his story with some of his expressive gestures.

"Mr. Moody looked up at me and said: 'Young man, how much money have you got?' I answered: 'Mr. Moody, I have got 35 cents.' The great evangelist looked me over with a good deal of astonishment. 'Well,' he ejaculated, 'how do you ever expect to study two years in Chicago on 35 cents?' And I said quickly: 'Mr. Moody, Philippians iv. 19.'"

"Mr. Moody smiled broadly, and he sang out to one of his followers: 'Please remember this young man. He is going to Chicago to study.' When I got to Chicago, I found a scholarship awaiting me."

Mr. Kimura came back to Japan and proceeded to have six years of evangelistic work with the Japanese people. He told his friends to give him "the most broken-down old church in Japan." There were only thirty-five members when he started, but there were 300 when he finished. Then he designed to take up bigger evangelistic work, and in June, 1911, he went to the United States, stopping at Honolulu long enough to convert over a thousand Japanese to Christianity. "There is one thing that I have learned from you Yankees, you Americans," declared Mr. Kimura, as a pleasant aside, "and that is your 'sticktiveness.'"

It was in Denver that Kimura first saw Billy Sunday. "It was the very first time in twenty-five years that I had such an experience," he said. "I went six times in one hour on hearing him." He joined Sunday's meetings at Des Moines, and during three weeks attended over fifty meetings.

Kimura came back to Japan in April of this year, and began to take part in the great evangelistic campaign. He has been talking to big crowds, and every week for the next year and a half is filled with engagements. When he preaches he often uses a blackboard, upon which he writes in Japanese or Chinese characters the texts of his sermons. This method, he said, made things much clearer to everybody. Sometimes, when his voice fails, he uses a megaphone. He found that preaching two or three times a day in the vigorous manner he was so very tiring, so he goes to bed every afternoon to prepare for the evening sermon. "I try to make things as simple as possible for everybody," he said, "and I think nobody ever goes to sleep when I'm preaching. Especially, I'm after the backsliders. I'm after them all, every one of the 60,000,000 people."

A Foe to Tuberculosis

The Journal of the American Medical Association (August 9, 1913), reviewing an article on "The Influence of Calcium Salts on Constitution and Health," said: "They (the authors) report numbers of concrete instances in which patients gained in vitality and energy after taking calcium."

Doctors agree that in tuberculosis lowered vitality and lost energy must be overcome. One of the constituents of Eckman's Alternative is calcium (lime), in such combination with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated by the average person. The lime in part is due to its success in the treatment of tuberculosis—a service which even some clinical practitioners have acknowledged to their patients. We make no wholesale claims for it, but since it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, a trial is safe. Sold by Tragle Drug Co. and leading druggists.
